The Court declines to set a trial date at this time, but will do so in consultation with counsel after submission of the parties' briefing.

¹ The Court adopts the parties' agreement as set forth in their Joint Status Report (Dkt. # 9), to forego submitting Reply Briefs in exchange for enlarging the page limits for the motion and response briefs to 30 pages each.

1 These dates are set at the direction of the court after reviewing the joint status 2 report and discovery plan submitted by the parties. All other dates are specified in 3 the Local Civil Rules. If any of the dates identified in this Order or the Local Civil 4 Rules falls on a weekend or federal holiday, the act or event shall be performed on 5 the next business day. These dates are firm dates that can be changed only by order
6 of the court, not by agreement of counsel or parties. The court will alter these dates 7 only upon good cause shown: failure to complete discovery within the time allowed 8 is not recognized as good cause.

9 As required by LCR 37(a), all discovery matters are to be resolved by 10 agreement if possible. In addition, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16, 11 the court “direct[s] that before moving for an order relating to discovery, the movant 12 must request a conference with the court” by notifying Ashleigh Drecktrah,

17 to give the Deputy Clerk prompt notice of settlement may be subject to such 18 discipline as the court deems appropriate.
